

Evenio – We build high impact events

Evenio Oy is a Finnish Event and Meeting Service Provider.

We deliver event management in healthcare sector specialising in pharmaceutical Investigator Meetings. With our global reach, industry focus and high standards, Evenio provides unique value to clients.

With Evenio, you can focus on creating the professional synergy and leave project management and creative event design up to us. Your goals and objectives are our highest priority. Based in Europe, Evenio's experienced team and global mindset delivers consistent compliance and quality execution in various countries and cultures.

We provide concept creation, program planning and event execution services to help clients create high-impact meetings.

Since 2016, we have executed over 50 face-to-face Investigator Meetings in Europe and the United States, hosted over 3000 attendees, and consistently received highly positive feedback from CRO's, sponsors, HCP's and from the co-working network.

In 2020 - 2022 as a response to the changing business environment, we expanded our services to include Online Meeting Services.

We have since successfully conducted multiple digital investigator meetings and have received extremely positive feedback about our new service offerings.
